OUR SOUTHERN FRONTIERS. MILITARY MOVEMENT.

Monday fall an exprets arrived at Canton ment, Wathington, with orders from great Hampton for the immediate movement the army. Since that time the greatelt ich vity has prevailed, and the troops defended the river fall night. We have been told be this movement is made in confequence of a formation received by Gen. Hampton in Port Stoddert that Gev. Folch is ffrengthe ing Mobil- and drawing all the trouping enlaçola to that point.

We learn that Gov. Holmes has recom a despatch from Fort St. Stephens whiches firms the agrount of Falch's firengtine himself at Mobile. It is certainly extrem probable that the whole army will delice ex N. Orleans from whence it will be conved by water to the point in contention.
